The Ledger Delivers the Goods

Mr. Hal-igh H. Ryan of Flemingsburg, while in the city several days ago, lost a ring, which was found by Mr. W. Deming of Flemingsburg, who saw the "ad" in THE LEDGER, and returned the ring to its owner. The ring was invaluable as a keepsake, and Mr. Ryan is loud in his praise of THE LEDGER and Mr. Deming in returning the ring. The "ad" was inserted at the instigation of Miss Anna Daugherty, the popular Day Clerk at the Central Hotel.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by Local Applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound and imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Itall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

A feminine writer gives her opinion on the following original

The truth is, girls are so continually and lastingly warned against the male sex to that they look upon most men as monsters or clever villains. Nothing could be more absurd or harmful philosophy of life. Men are just as good as women—only a woman when she is not good sinks to the bottom like a rock, and we see nothing more of her, while bad men are like perpetually floating corks—you can't get rid of them.

The Court of Appeals has decided that no money raised by a school tax levy can be expended in hauling the children to school. The decision was rendered in a case appealed from Mason county involving the transportation of pupils of the Mayslick school. The original suit was brought by some twenty taxpayers of Mayslick who objected to the wagon system.

The Appellate Court says the present laws do not authorize the expenditure of money raised for school purposes, in the buying of wagons. The opinion goes on to say: "We do not hold that the Legislature may not provide for the levying of a tax for this purpose; we only hold that it has not done so." This dispels the doubt that has befogged on. It also gives opportunity for enactment of a law which will permit the transportation of pupils. The decision is important and it is fortunate that it comes at a time when the Legislature is in session and its prompt attention to the defect.

Kentucky has made a start in school consolidation and the experiments that have been tried have been uniformly favorable. The best example of successful consolidation in the State is presented by the school at Mayslick, at which place the case just decided by the high Court had its beginning. There are several other districts in the State where the transportation system has been adopted, the cost of hauling the pupils being paid out of the school tax funds. There is great need of the consolidation of weak schools, but this, of course, would be impracticable in the absence of any provision for bringing the children to the schoolhouse. The deficiency can be remedied at the present session of the General Assembly and doubtless will be, as the emergency demands remedial legislation.

AFTER all Rev. RICHMOND knew more about the killing of Miss AVIS LINNELL than he did about any matter in the Bible.

TART has made us a good President, but we fear his days in the White House are numbered.—Middleboro Thousandsticks.

Yes, and the second series of days will begin on March 4, 1913 and end, Deo volente, at noon on March 4th 1917.

We learn from The Journal of the American Medical Association that among those who shared in the honors distributed by KING

HONORS are Even. GEORGE on the occasion of the Durbar ceremony were two British

"patent-medicine" exploiters, who have made their millions from the gullible sick, and who have now received the order of knighthood. The occasion seems one that is pregnant with opportunities for sarcastic comment, at the expense of royalty and monarchical governments. But then we unwillingly remember that genial personage whose relationship to the Duffy's Malt Whisky outfit and the canning company that sold short-weight products has often been the subject of comment—the gentleman whom a free people elected to the second highest office it has to give, namely the vice-presidency of the United States. After which, it seems, the less said the better.

"Patrick, the widow Maloney tells me that you stole one of her finest pigs. Is it correct?"
"Yes, your reverence."
"What have you done with it?"
"Killed it and ate it, your reverence."
"Oh, Patrick, Patrick! When you are brought face to face with the widow and the pig on the great judgment day what account will you be able to give of yourself when the widow accuses you of stealing?"
"Did you say the pig would be there, your reverence?"
"To be sure, I did."
"Well, then, your reverence. I'd say Mrs. Maloney, there's your pig."

Too many honest people make the mistake of trying to beat a wildcat at his own game.

FOR WOMEN ONLY.

That is the nature of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—the one remedy for women which contains no alcohol and no habit-forming drugs. Made from native medicinal forest roots. Dr. Pierce tells its every ingredient on the bottle-wrap. Prominent physicians and some of the best medical authorities endorse these ingredients as being the very best known remedies for ailments and weaknesses peculiar to women.

This is what Mrs. GENET E. COFFEY, of Longstreet, Ky., says: "I feel it my duty to write and tell you what your medicines have done for me. I was a great sufferer for six years from a trouble peculiar to women, but I am thankful to say, after taking four bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' I am not bothered with that dreadful disease any more. I feel like a new woman. When I first wrote you for advice I only weighed 115 pounds—now I weigh 135. I thank you very much for your kindness. You have been as a father to me in advising me what to do, so may God bless you in every effort you put forth for good. I hope your testimonial will be the means of some poor suffering woman seeking health."

Worldly Success

Much Depends on Ideas of Life's Purpose

By G. DRABBIT

WHETHER a man's life in this world is successful or not depends on the idea which is held of the purpose for which life is given. If we believe that death ends all, the conclusion may be not unreasonably reached that the successful life is one into which are crowded the greatest number of material blessings and the least amount of earthly discomfort. But if, on the other hand, we are convinced that our brief stay in this mundane sphere of existence was designed to be a preparation for an endless hereafter, then that is the successful life in which such preparation is most adequately made. The question is therefore, primarily, the great and abiding one of man's immortality.

But, apart from this point, we may well ask ourselves what kind of life is the happiest for men, for that life is surely the most successful which is the most truly happy. And we have no right to assume that the conditions of happiness are different in this world and in the other. Rather ought we to say that they must be the same for human beings everywhere.

Happiness may be defined as the state of mind which is realized by living according to divine order. That order consists in obedience to God's commandments, chief among which are those which prescribe love to the Lord and love to the neighbor. These are, indeed, the briefest summary of man's duty. They cannot be put in practice except by acts of usefulness and kindness. Hence it follows that true happiness is experienced only in unselfish service for others.

Of this character should be the daily work or calling of every man. According as such is the case with anyone, his life is successful, not only as regards his own welfare and his influence upon his fellow men here on earth, but also as being the appointed gateway into life everlasting.

Wisdom, Religion And Health Are Adjusted

By FRANK CRANE

Mark the boy's splendid physique, his emphatic spirits and radiating health. Ask him where he got these. He doesn't know. They just come. Now, if he had quit playing and gone in pursuit of health he would have missed it.

Only sickly folks are everlastingly seeking health. Beans and side meat and forgetfulness make better blood and bones than predigested food and special diets and care.

Dr. Holmes spoke of how ideas come to one, as if a bullet had struck one, shot out of the nowhere. The highest form of intellectual product, the kind that smacks of genius, the sort of writing and painting or music that haunts men, emerges similarly out of the infinite and finds the producer. It is the "divine afflatus," an ounce of it is worth a ton of study.

In character, likewise, those souls are the noblest who are not "trying" to be noble; and the purest are not they who struggle against impurity.

The finest moral texture is woven by those souls who, like the lilies of the field, "toil not, neither do they spin."

They have that which is better than effort; they are adjusted.

regarding the proper handling of a gun. If careful practice in shooting were encouraged more the mortality would be greatly diminished. The hunting license should be issued only to responsible persons who have had experience in handling guns.

The lives of our citizens are too valuable to risk in the hands of a lot of so-called hunters who know nothing of firearms.

The gentleman who suggested red jackets will doubtless agree with me that restriction of the license and not bright clothes will prove the solution of the hunting problem.

TOBACCO GROWERS

Hold Big Meeting Here Yesterday —Not Much Resulted From the Pow.Wow

Yesterday was a lively day in tobacco affairs in Maysville as in addition to the auction at the three houses, the big meeting of Burley tobacco growers held at the Court-house, drew in all about one thousand tobacco men to Maysville.

Everybody attended the tobacco sales in the morning, including President Clarence L. Lusk, Vice President Ferguson and Fred T. Jallard of Lexington, Publicity Agent for the Farley Society. Mr. LeBus scored the loose leaf method in his speech after dinner at the Court-house and he evidently wants the So-control the situation, which is but he is "intruding in his work and "owing for his company. "yesterday afternoon was a large at least 600 tobacco growers and from Mason and adjoining counties. and the Circuit Court room to the door year an exposition of the "Ten Year Pool- ing Plan" as outlined by LeBus and Ferguson. Mr. Ferguson opened with an hour's talk and made an impassioned appeal to the growers to join in the pool. He is an earnest and effective talker and his hearers gave him respectful attention.

President LeBus followed Mr. Ferguson and delivered one of the most interesting and speeches ever heard in the en- uence campaign. There were so sa said by the millionaire Bur- ey at, taken as a whole it was a rhetorical classic.

are the methods used by Mr. notwithstanding the sometimes charged to him, his remarks yesterday unpollished, were sledge- hammers for every tobacco grower in the land.

He said in closing that the situation re- solved itself into this: That it is up to the growers to join the pool by March 1st, or the farmers' movement would go to the bow-wows. He said he would give the farmers until March 1st to join the pool and if it wasn't a go then he would be in another pool, but it wouldn't be "the people's pool."

Mr. LeBus invited any one to address the meeting and state his opinion, but no one came forward and the crowd dispersed or, but apparently in a body opposed to the ten-year plan.

It is said that after the meeting farmers to the number of a dozen signed the agreement. Chairman R. T. Watson of the Mason County Board of Control, who called the meeting to order was left to distribute the contract books and see that canvassers visit every precinct in the county and procure more signatures.

A MEASURE OF MERIT

MAYSVILLE CITIZENS SHOULD WEIGH WELL THIS EVIDENCE

Proof of merit lies in the evidence. Convincing evidence in Maysville. It is not the testimony of strangers. But the endorsement of Maysville people. That's the kind of proof given here—

The statement of a Maysville citizen. William H. Paul, 333 East Third street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"For two years I had pains in my back and other troubles, caused by disordered kidneys. When Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention I began their use and they soon brought relief. I cheerfully recommend this remedy as one that lives up to the claims made for it."

The above statement was given on December 13th, 1904, and on February 6th, 1905, Mr. Paul said:

"My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills has not changed since I first recommended them. My cure has been permanent and I am now in good health."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McIlhenny Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

WOMAN ESCAPES DREADFUL OPERATION

How She Was Saved From Surgeon's Knife by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mogadore, Ohio.—"The first two years I was married I suffered so much from female troubles and bearing down pains that I could not stand on my feet long enough to do my work. The doctor said I would have to undergo an operation, but my husband wanted me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound first. I took three bottles and it made me well and strong and I avoided a dreadful operation. I now have two fine healthy children, and I cannot say too much about what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. LEE MANGES, R. F. D. 10, Mogadore, Ohio.

Why will women take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
